NEWSLETTER: Bob Kyle

Two weeks ago: Terry Pena introduced his college roommate and longtime friend, Todd Staimpel of the Cleveland Police Force who told the grim story of how the media can take hold of a situation (story) and bend it completely out of proportion. Todd was accused of the beating of a black person in which the news media took the story and ran with it. Todd was suspended from duty without pay for several years. He vowed not to be defeated and, through the courts, fought it until he won the case. He was reinstated on the force and is now a detective on the West side of Cleveland. Todd said that his mother’s backing and his strong faith in God carried him through the ordeal. Todd’s talk was an interesting, but tear jerking talk. He received a standing applause at the end of his talk.

Thank you, Terry for this true program.

AMERICA

My Country 'tis of thee,
Sweet Land of Liberty,
Of Thee I sing.
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

VERMILION GRACE

Let us pause in the rush of the fray
And reflect on our duties so high
We confess and exalt Thee today,
We beseech Thee thy care,
God most high.

SMILE

Smile and the world smiles with you
Sing a song,
Don't be weary, just be cheery
All day long.
Whenever your trials
Your troubles and your care
Seem to be more than you can really bear, so
Smile and the world smiles with you
Sing a song!

HELLO

Hello, Hello, Hello
What a wonderful word hello,
Hello, Hello, Hello
You will hear it wherever you go.
Strangers like your friendship
When you greet them;
So smile and say hello
When you first meet them.
Hello, Hello, Hello,
What a wonderful word Hello!
